TH E Editor of the following Sheets, thinks he needs no Apology, and therefore will make none, for giving the Publick more accurate Directions for Travelling, than are to be met with in any other Book of the Kind.

JOHN OGILBY and WILLIAM MORGAN, were appointed by King Charles II. and the Lords of the Council, to survey the Roads of England, which they did at the Expence of 7000 l. and accordingly printed the Britannia in 100 whole Sheet Maps; several Abstracts and Abridgments whereof have been published: But length of Time has produced great Alterations by turning the Roads, and the Traveller by following Ogilby, has often been led into the Mire. Many Instances may be found, where new Roads are struck out, that were never known, or frequented, 'till lately; particularly one from Meriden to Chester, page 84, which is now the usual Coach Road: from Enston through Stratford upon Avon to Birmingham, page 74, Peterborough to Lincoln, page 168, and many others, not in Ogilby, or any other Books of Roads yet published. Another Objection is, that all the Books of Roads hitherto published, differ in the Situation of Mile Stones, and instead of being a Guide to the Traveller, serve only to confound him. Ogilby, by taking his Measure from Cornhill, makes it 12 Miles and a Half to Hounslow, but the ten Mile Stone is really on the Heath, a little beyond Hounslow; and this Difference is made almost in every Road in England.

The Mile Stones are here printed as they are, or ought to be placed on the Road. It were to be wished, that the Commissioners of all the Turnpikes, were obliged to continue their Measurement agreeable thereto, in a regular Manner from London. Instead of which the Measurement from Chester to Castle-Bromwich, begins at Chester, and is continued to Castle-Bromwich; the same from Portsmouth to Petersfield; from St John's-Bridge to Fisfield, Berkshire; from Peterborough to Lincoln; and many others. This Regulation, it is hoped, will by and by take place, as well as the Amendment of the Roads, by the total Prohibition of narrow Wheels on Waggon and Carts drawn with more than two Horses, 'till which Time good Roads cannot be expected at such a Distance from London, where the narrow Wheels overpower the broad ones, and spoil what they mend.

'Tis surprizing the Farmers should still continue so obstinate, and not open their Eyes to Conviction; but so it has been in other Nations besides England. It is well known, that the Farmers in Ireland used to draw their Ploughs tied to the Horses Tails, and would have continued the same foolish Custom to this Day, had they not been obliged by Act of Parliament to make use of Harnesses. Mr Salmon, in The Universal Traveller, Vol. I. page 573, says, that in Poland, their Ploughs are in Shape like ours, but in many Places are made all of Wood, having no Iron about them: and in the Province of Samogitia, when their Lords would have obliged them to fortify their Ploughs with Iron, they chose to lie still and not plow at all rather than depart from an old Custom.

It

The P R E F A C E.

It may not be at all amiss in a Book of this Kind, to take Notice of the vast Disproportion between loading heavy Luggage on the fore or hind Wheels of a Carriage, it being plain from Mathematical Experiments, that it will require five times the Force to draw a Carriage out of a Slough, the Weight being on the fore Wheels, as would draw the same, were the same Weight on the hind Wheels. This the Carriers, Coachmen, &c. won't believe, and still continue laying as much of their heavy Luggage, as possibly they can in the Boot of the Coach, and on the fore Part of the Waggon; but as this does not affect the Roads, let them persist in their Folly.

The greatest Care has been taken to make this Book as compleat as possible, without a regular Survey, the Expence whereof, every one will readily suppose cannot be defrayed out of the Profits of a Book of so small a Price as this is. The Method, therefore, which the Editor has taken, has been to procure all the Information he could from his Friends, and from several of the Post-Masters in the Country, who have favoured him with their Assistance. Notwithstanding which, some Mistakes and Inaccuracies will very probably happen. He would think himself greatly obliged to any Gentleman, who will favour him with any Additions or Alterations, which may be necessary by making of new Roads, for which many Acts are passed every Session of Parliament. I shall only add,

DIRECTIONS for finding the Road to any Place, to which the Traveller wants to go, viz. If to Coventry, look in the Alphabetical Index for Coventry, and opposite to it you are directed to page 66, where you will find the Road to Coventry: the rest of the Pages referred to, shew the Cross-Roads from Coventry to Cambridge, Gloucester, Hereford, Leicester, Worcester, Droitwich, Oxford, Banbury, Derby, &c,

If you want to go to a Place not in a high Road, viz. to Aldborough in Yorkshire, the Alphabet shews, that it is one Mile East of Boroughbridge, the high Road to which from London you will find in page 35.

But as it is impossible to lay down all the Cross-Roads, that every Man may have Occasion to go (as a thousand Men may each have a different Way to travel) therefore a Map is added, that if you do not find in the Book the Road you would go, by finding in the Map the Place you are at, and whither you would go, you will presently see what Road will bring you thither. For Example, would you go from Ipswich to York; you will find by the Map your Road is by Bury, Ely, and Peterborough to Stamford, when you are in the high London Road to York.

Directions

Directions for passing over at Aust, and the New Passage between England and Wales, Twenty Miles from Bath. See p. 127, 131.

ALL Southerly or Westerly Winds are called Winds below, and your passing over must be on the Ebb, or going out of the Tide; and you have seven Hours Passage.

All Northerly and Easterly Winds are called Winds above; then your Passage must be on the Flood, or coming in of the Tide, and then but five Hours Passage.

When the Wind and Tide go both one Way, there is no passing over.

It is computed, passing Aust and the New Passage varies half an Hour; so that when the Tide is coming in, and the Wind above, you may pass at the New Passage half an Hour sooner than at Aust; but the Tide going out, and the Wind below then at Aust half an Hour before the New.

Prices of Goods, Cattle, and Passengers going over at both Passages.

A {	Coach and 6	Horses {	16	}	Man, Woman, or Child, 4d.
	Coach and 4		14		Man and Horse, 1s.

Note, Whereas these Offices have suffered many Impositions and Abuses by Money said to be sent by this Conveyance ; in order to prevent which, Notice is given, That unless any Parcel or Parcels of Money be brought to one

one of the Six Offices above-mentioned, and there seen and entered by a proper Officer, the Messenger will in no wise make good any such Parcel of Money if it should happen to miscarry by any Accident whatsoever.

I. As to other Parcels, it is desired that the real Value may be mentioned at the Bottom of the Direction.

II. And considering divers of these Places are remote, It is desired you put in your Letters and Parcels before Six of the Clock over-Night at the Receiving Houses, from whence they will be Collected, and brought into their proper Offices; because divers of the Country Messengers go on their Walks by Six of the Clock next Morning. and thereby will gain a Day's time in the Delivery: But for those Places that are nearer, Letters are Collected and Delivered two or three times a Day.

III. And it is further Notified, that all General Post-Letters both Foreign and Domestick, are conveyed from the abovesaid Offices directed, to the Towns abovementioned, every Day at twelve o'Clock: And Answers thereunto being put into the Receiving Houses in the Country Towns will next Night be safely put into the General Post-Office.
